RELEASE AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT SECTION I

For and in consideration of access to and use of Fort Hood Training Areas for recreational and other purposes authorized by the proper Fort Hood officials (an access pass is required for each entry), the undersigned does hereby release and discharge the Department of the Army, its agents, servants, and employees, of and from any and all liability, actions, claims, demands, or suits whatsoever, that the undersigned may acquire on account of, arising out of, or in conjunction with the use of the training areas by the undersigned or the United States Army and its personnel. The undersigned assumes all risk incident to entry into and use of Fort Hood Training Areas. Further the undersigned assumes responsibility for informing those entering or using Fort Hood Training Areas with him of the risks undertaken upon serious injury because Fort Hood Training Areas contain unexploded munitions both above and below the surface and are used for military training involving high speed vehicles and weapons fire. The undersigned is fully aware that training including weapons fire may continue in the training areas while the undersigned is present in the training areas. This Release and Hold Harmless Agreement covers all injuries both fatal or nonfatal, illness of every name, kind, or nature, and personal property damage which may be sustained or suffered from any cause whatsoever connected with or arising out of the use of Fort Hood Training Areas.

Further, the undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Department of the Army, its agents, servants, and employees, of and from any and all expenses, claims, demands, suits, and causes of actions asserted by any person, firm, or corporations for personal injury of property damage incurred as a result of or arising from the intentional, reckless, or negligent acts or omissions of the undersigned while in the Fort Hood Training Areas. The undersigned agrees to allow no damage or destruction to Fort Hood Training Areas and to leave the training area in essentially the same condition as when the undersigned entered the area. The undersigned specifically promises to immediately inform Range Division of any damage caused to the training areas or hazards created in the training areas by the undersigned. The undersigned agrees to bear the expense of repairing any damages or removing any hazards created by the undersigned.

The undersigned further warrants that no promise or agreement not herein expressed has been made, that this release is not executed in reliance on any statement or representation made by the party (parties) hereby released or said party's (parties') representatives or agents, concerning any thing or matter.
